Re: United States v. Haranakk Dingle
13 Cr. 242 (SAS)

Dear Judge Scheindlin:

SO ORDERED
A handwritten signature of Shira A. Scheindlin.
Shira A. Scheindlin, USDC
11/10/14

I write as counsel for defendant Haranakk Dingle, and with the consent of the Government, to request an adjournment of his sentencing, which is currently scheduled for November 18, 2014. This is defendant's first request for an adjournment of his sentencing

Defense counsel has objected to the United States Probation Office's Pre-sentence Report ("PSR") because it fails to include important information about the final disposition of a 1999 arrest of defendant in the Bronx.

Without additional information regarding the final disposition of defendant's 1999 arrest, the Court will have an inaccurate and incomplete description of defendant's criminal history and will be unable to make an informed and correct determination of defendant's applicable Guidelines range and the appropriate sentence to impose.

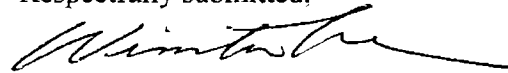

Consequently, an adjournment of sentencing is needed to give the parties additional time to obtain all records - including sealed records - which contain the missing information regarding the final disposition of defendant's 1999 arrest. After obtaining these records, defense counsel will need additional to review these records, confer with defendant, and prepare a sentencing memorandum.

I have been advised by Chambers that an adjournment of sentencing to a new date of January 20, 21, or 22 of 2015 is convenient for the Court.

Accordingly, for the reasons stated above, I respectfully request an adjournment of defendant's sentence to any of the above dates.

Respectfully submitted,
